the parental pledge

Every year we encounter problems with parents parking on the yellow and zig-zag lines outside school. By parking in this way you are not only causing an obstruction, you are also putting your children and other road users in danger.

We are working with our Neighbourhood Policing Team to resolve the issue and asking all parents to sign up to a pledge to park considerately when dropping off and collecting children from school. Please sign the below and return.

Signed (Parent):

Signed (Head Teacher):

Neighbourhood Policing
keeping you in the know

Lancashire Constabulary
police and communities together